THE 2010 HARVARD MEDAL RECIPIENTS

The Harvard Medals have been given by the Harvard Alumni Association since 1981 in recognition of extraordinary service to the University.

NINA ARCHABAL AB '62, MAT '63 cares deeply for Harvard, and her service has been substantial. A member of Harvard's Board of Overseers from 1997 to 2003, she served as vice chair of its Executive Committee and chair of its Standing Committee on Schools, the College, and Continuing Education. She also served as an Overseer liaison for the Center for Hellenic Studies, Dumbarton Oaks, and the Committee on Women Undergraduates. As chair of the visiting committee for the Peabody Museum, she shares her insight on how to advance the core mission of all of Harvard's museums. Additionally, she was a member of the committees to visit the Department of Anthropology and the University Library.

A resident of Minnesota since 1965, she was a longtime member of the Radcliffe Club of Minnesota and supports the work of the Harvard Club of Minnesota. She has been with the Minnesota Historical Society since 1977, having served as chair, director, and the state historic preservation officer. Additionally, she has chaired the United States Committee of the International Council of Museums since 2005, and served as a trustee of the American Folklife Center at the Library of Congress and as chair of the American Association of Museums. President Bill Clinton awarded her the National Humanities Medal in 1997.

PAUL BUTTENWIESER AB '60, MD '64 is unequalled in the breadth of his involvement across the University, and, beyond Harvard, he is deeply involved in causes that address issues in education, the arts, poverty, and social justice.

As an Overseer from 2001 to 2007, he served on visiting committees to the Graduate School of Education, where he participated in shaping the new Doctorate in Education Leadership Program, as well as to the College and the Departments of Music, English, Psychology, Visual and Environmental Studies, and Government.

He has been deeply involved in class reunion fundraising and is co-chair of the Reunion Gift Steering Committee for the 50th reunion. He also co-chaired his 35th and 40th reunions and was a member of the 25th Reunion Gift Committee. He is a member of the Boston Major Gifts Committee, the Harvard Art Museum's Director's Advisory Council, and the FAS Science, Teaching, and Research Planning Committee, and is a trustee of the American Repertory Theater. Additionally, he was a member of the Phillips Brooks House Association Committee, the FAS Financial Aid Council, and Harvard Medical School's Campaign Committee.

A practicing psychiatrist, novelist, arts advocate, and community volunteer, he and his wife, Catherine, founded the Family-to-Family Project in response to the crisis of family homelessness.

C. KEVIN LANDRY AB '66 is unparalleled in his support for Harvard College and a leader among Boston-area alumni as a co-chair of the Boston Major Gifts Committee. Additionally, Landry serves as a member of the Committee on University Resources and the FAS Dean's Council and has been a leader of his College class, co-chairing the class's 25th, 30th, 35th, 40th, and 45th Reunion Gift Committees. He received the Flood Leadership Award and the David T.W. McCord AB '21, AM '22, LHD '56 Award in recognition of his extraordinary leadership and service to the Harvard College Fund.

Landry has played a significant role in shaping how hands-on science is taught to undergraduates through the funding of the Jeremy Knowles Undergraduate Teaching Laboratory, the first interdisciplinary teaching space on campus that supports active learning across the sciences and engineering. He is also a loyal fan of the Department of Athletics, endowing the women's ice hockey head coach position and improving the overall conditions of Bright Hockey Center. He is chairman of TA Associates, one of the oldest private equity firms in the country, and a member of the Private Equity Hall of Fame. Additionally, he is a trustee of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, and a former trustee of Middlesex School.

DEAN WHITLA GSE '52-'57, '59-'60 is one of Harvard's quiet heroes. Having served as founder and director of Harvard's Summer Institute on College Admissions for 45 years, he researched and advocated for better practices in the use of nationwide tests and stronger financial aid programs for underrepresented, low-income college students, enabling admissions committees everywhere to accommodate the changing educational and social climate.

Whitla's own research explored college teaching and learning, and how to increase student diversity and educational effectiveness. Former Associate Justice Sandra Day O'Connor cited his research during the landmark University of Michigan cases Gratz v. Bollinger and Grutter v. Bollinger, which allowed the continuance of affirmative action.

Earlier in his career, he worked in Nigeria to help improve the offerings of a Harvard-sponsored secondary school.

He served as director of the Office of Instructional Research and Evaluation, the Harvard-Danforth Center for Teaching and Learning, and its successor, the Bok Center for Teaching and Learning. A former Allston Burr Senior Tutor in Lowell House, he was a lecturer in the Graduate School of Education, chairing its Counseling and Consulting Psychology Program. Additionally, he twice directed the reaccreditation process for the University and was a longtime member of the Harvard College Committee on Admissions.

He continues his service as freshman advisor, member of the Lowell House Senior Common Room, co-director of a research project at the Medical School, and advisor to the Harvard Faculty Club Board of Advisors.

GAUDEAMUS IGITUR

Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus;
Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus;
Let us rejoice while we are young;
Post jucundam juventutem,
After our delightful youth,
Post molestam senectutem,
After grievous old age,
Nos habebit humus, Nos habebit humus.
The earth will hold us.

Alma Mater floreat, Quae nos educavit;
Alma Mater floreat, Quae nos educavit;
Let our nourishing mother flourish,
She who educated us;
Caros et commilitones,
Friends and colleagues,
Dissitas in regiones,
Scattered to disparate regions,
Sparsos congregavit, Sparsos congregavit.
She has gathered together.

Traditional

HARVARDIANA

With Crimson in triumph flashing,
'Mid the strains of victory,
Poor Eli's hopes we are dashing
Into blue obscurity.
Resistless our team sweeps goalward
'Mid the fury of the blast;
We'll fight for the name of Harvard
Till the last white line is passed.

Harvard! Harvard! Harvard!
Harvard! Harvard! Harvard!
Harvard! Harvard! Harvard!

Words by R.G. Williams, 1911

Arranged by Leroy Anderson AB '29, AM '30

RADCLIFFE, NOW WE RISE TO GREET THEE

Radcliffe, now we rise to greet thee,
Alma Mater, hail to thee!
All our hearts are one in singing
Of our love and loyalty.
We have learn'd to know each other
In thy light, which clearly beams,

Thou hast been a kindly Mother,
Great fulfiller of our dreams.
Radcliffe, now we rise to greet thee,
Alma Mater, hail to thee!

Words by Floretta Elmore, 1909

Music by Emily Coolidge, 1908

FAIR HARVARD

Fair Harvard! We join in thy Jubilee throng,
And with blessings surrender thee o'er,
By these Festival-rites, from the Age that is past
To the Age that is waiting before.
O Relic and Type of our ancestors' worth,
That has long kept their memory warm,
First flow'r of their wilderness! Star of their night!
Calm rising thro' change and thro' storm.

Farewell! Be thy destinies onward & bright!
To thy children the lesson still give,
With freedom to think, & with patience to bear,
And for Right ever bravely to live.
Let not moss-covered Error moor thee at its side,
As the world on Truth's current glides by,
Be the herald of Light, and the bearer of Love,
Till the stock of the Puritans die.

Original Words by Samuel Gilman, 1811

Arranged by Leroy Anderson AB '29, AM '30
