

FAIR HARVARD SAMUEL GILMAN, CLASS OF 1811

Fair Harvard! we join in thy Jubilee throng,
And with blessings surrender thee o'er.
By these Festival-rites, from the Age that is past,
To the Age that is waiting before.
O Relic and Type of our ancestors' worth,
That hast long kept their memory warm,
First flow'r of their wilderness! Star of their night!
Calm rising thro' change and thro' storm.
[Revised 1998]

Fair Harvard! For four years we have carried on,
And now our time here is o'er
We saw Harvard go green, and a calendar change,
And the Queen's Head Pub open its doors.
As freshmen we did all our readings for class,
But that was a long time ago.
We had drama with blocking and did river run,
Then onto sophomore year we did go.

Now as seniors, we look back upon our four years,
With all of their highs and their lows.
We welcomed Drew Faust, though hot breakfast was lost,
And we beat Yale three years in a row.
Now, into the world! Or at least to grad school!
We have conquered theses and swine flu.
And so onward we march, Class of 2010,
And fair Harvard, we bid you adieu!
