The Sweetest Season

HARVARD'S 35-3 DEMOLITION of Yale at the Stadium on November 20 was the crowning moment in a football season of peak performances: a perfect 10-0 record; high-scoring offense through the air and on the ground; determined if sometimes under-acknowledged defense (witness the devastating end-zone interception of a crucial Yale pass, run back 100 yards for a touchdown by Ricky Williamson '05); and the seniors' sweet satisfaction at defeating the Elis for the fourth consecutive time, a feat last accomplished from 1919 to 1922.

For a complete report on the footballers' compelling campaign, see Cleat's account on page 78.

Above: Sophomore Clifton Dawson (33, center), who ran for more than 100 yards in seven of the Crimson's 10 games, set new Harvard records for single-season rushing and single-season touchdowns in The Game. At left: School spirit abounded—and with good reason.
