

Our Residents are a lot of things

- Civic-Minded
- Interested
- Educated
- Vibrant

Retired
isn't one of them.

We are a community of seniors that continues to support higher education across New England.

Tour The Commons in Lincoln and discover our activities, lectures, learning opportunities and available programs.

781-728-5297

TheCommonsInLincoln.com

HARVARD SQUARED

and author of Just Mercy; a panel discussion will follow. First Parish in Cambridge. (December 7)

MUSIC

Kudiyattam Sanskrit Theater

www.music.fas.harvard.edu

The Harvard Department of Music presents a rare chance to experience the traditional music and dance art form, performed by the South Indian troupe Nephathya. Agassiz Theatre. (November 9)

Harvard-Radcliffe Chorus

www.harvardchoruses.fas.harvard.edu

J.S. Bach's cantata "Ein feste Burg ist unser Gott" and Mass in G Major top the program. Sanders Theatre. (November 17)

Harvard-Radcliffe Orchestra

www.harvardradcliffeorchestra.org

The Winter Concert includes works by Leonard Bernstein, Claude Debussy, and Dmitri Shostakovich. Sanders Theatre. (December 2)

An Evening with Chris Thile

www.harvardboxoffice.edu

The premier mandolin-player (and host of National Public Radio's Prairie Home Companion) performs classic and original compositions. Sanders Theatre. (November 21)

Capitol Steps

www.harvardboxoffice.edu

Orange Ain't the New Barack. The veteran satirical songsters lampoon the latest events in American politics. Sanders Theatre. (November 25)

EXHIBITIONS

Johnson-Kulukundis Family Gallery of Byerly Hall

www.radcliffe.harvard.edu

Feminist Archaeology, an interdisciplinary project by New York City-based artist Jennifer Bornstein, RI '15, explores historic and diverse strains of feminism that are not always aligned. (November 15-January 20)

Harvard Semitic Museum

www.semiticmuseum.fas.harvard.edu

New fabricated casts by museum curators and Harvard students reveal how ancient kings commemorated military and civic triumphs in From Stone to Silicone: Recasting Mesopotamian Wall Carvings. (Opens December 16)

Ethelbert Cooper Gallery at the Hutchins Center

www.coopergalleryhc.org

Wole Soyinka: Antiquities Across Times and Place highlights ancient African artifacts collected by the Nobel Prize-winning Nige-

STAFF PICK: Antique Treasures

Find not only rare books, but Asian botanical prints, medieval maps, and Red Sox memorabilia—along with other ephemera typically seen only behind museum glass—at the forty-first annual Boston International Antiquarian Book Fair.

More than 100 dealers proffer treasures ranging from under $100 to well over $100,000. Appraisers are on hand, and a panel discussion can help guide those new to the passion. Christine Nelson, curator at the Morgan Library & Museum, in New York City, lectures on "Of Books and Wild Beasts: Thoreau's Wilderness Library," and sleight-of-hand artist Ricky Jay reveals his own acclaimed stock of books and other materials related to "Magicians, Cheaters, & Remarkable Characters."

~N.P.B.

Boston International Antiquarian Book Fair
November 10-12
Hynes Convention Center

BOSTON INTERNATIONAL ANTIQUARIAN BOOK FAIR